CLARKE COLLEGE

And every Moment is New—and every second brings us closer to newer minutes.

*Then suddenly we stop and we marvel
at the wonder of now.*

Awareness Begins With Ourselves

We realize our goals by searching for our dreams

John Culver

We tiptoe lightly into the realm of uncertainty

But once we begin each step becomes firmer and more solidly constructed toward our visions.

R. Sargent Shriver

John Culver

Caring,

Sharing—

beauty of life

Seniors

The perpetual question . . . where has the time gone . . . it starts even as we end our junior year . . . as we say goodbye to the kids who helped us through that first confusing time . . . and then August . . . Seniors . . . 258 days till graduation . . . it still seems like a distant dream . . . first, there is much work to be done . . . and such good times to be had . . . Memories . . . of the first senior cocktail party . . . cheering at the last football game . . . class parties . . . comps . . . sitting in the dorm dateless on a Saturday night . . . planning new lives . . . deadlines . . . job interviews and grad school applications . . . registering for (thank God!) the last time . . . tears after the last Christmas dinner . . . happiness as our plans begin to work . . . as we see accomplishment . . . All at once it is spring . . . and we're still cutting classes as we hit the sundecks for the last time . . . May . . . and we walk together through the doors . . . with diplomas in hand . . . and our college days behind us . . .

RITA LEITELT

Finally, We Graduate

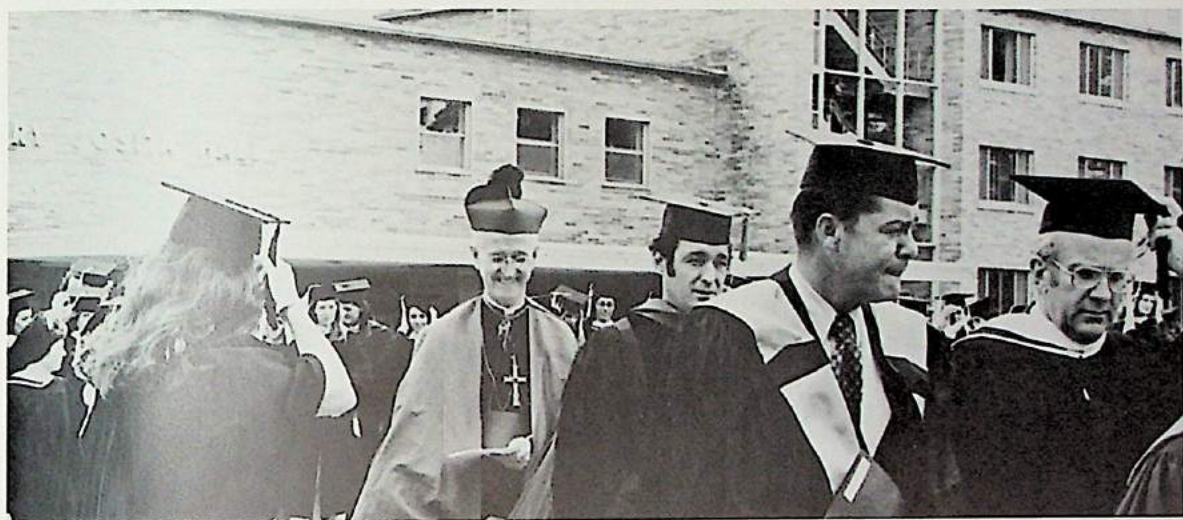

Minutes cleverly disguised as infinity, unobtrusively share our lives with us — and sometimes, the strangeness of it all — hits — and the moment is lost to itself in a rare sense of belonging

Achievement, Purpose, Success—These are our Dreams—

Taking a moment of trial and making it a moment of Victory—

*To what end?
What purpose?*

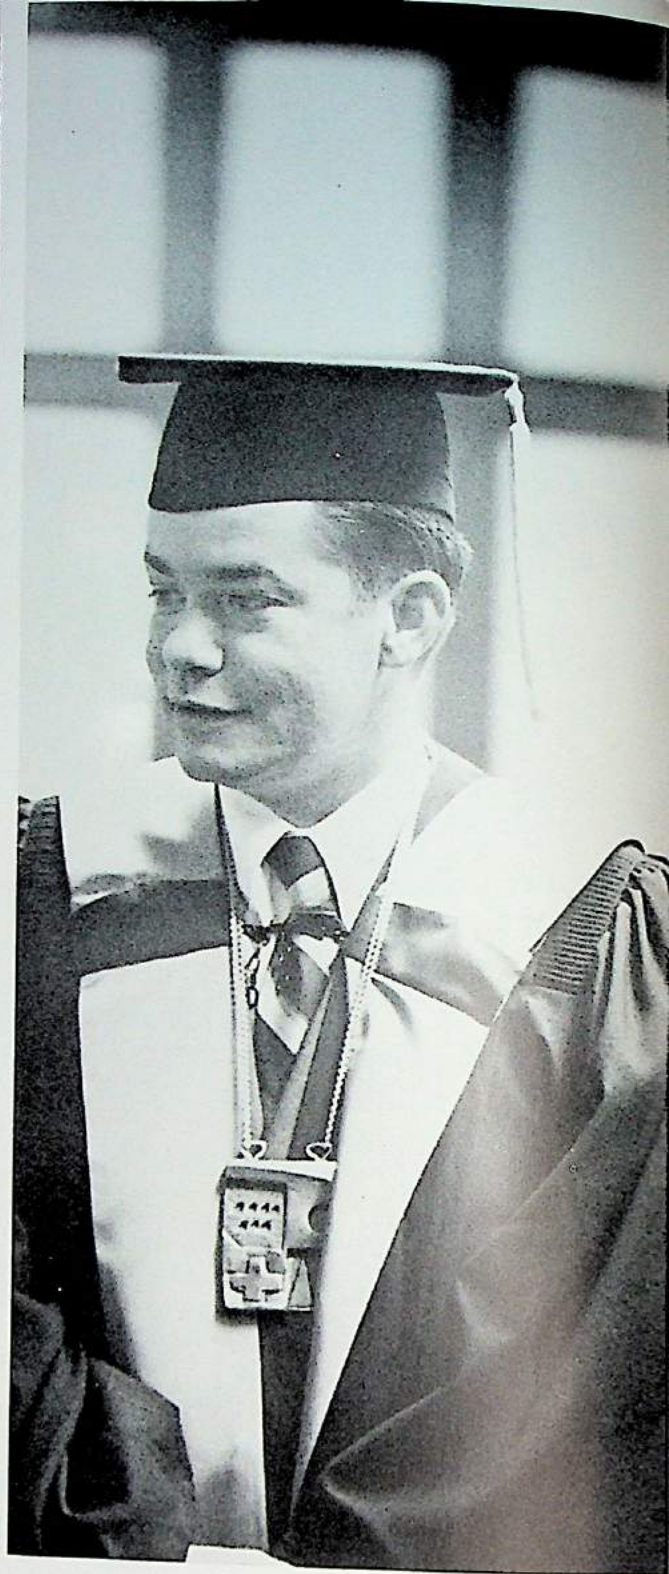

Ms. Cassie Mackin

CLARKE—

Where lasting friendships are made.

Where Dreams Become Reality

An End for Seniors but Not for the Underclassmen—

first days at college continually growing . . . changing . . . maturing school can be fun . . . but, oh, are we ever really caught up classes . . . tests . . . forever filling out forms . . . or questionnaires . . . or opinion polls junk mail, flyers, meetings
letters from home
participation in community activities three very short years (each going faster than the one before)
years that too quickly come and go
